PRINCE GEORGE HOTEL

GEORGE H. NEWTON, Manager

FIFTH AVE. AND 28th ST.

NEW YORK

HE Prince George is aptly described as "a friendly hotel." It is not only one of the most beautifully appointed hotels in New York, but one of the most homelike and comfortable as well.

There are 800 bedrooms, all of them light and airy and equipped with private baths and telephones.

A Grand Foyer, luxuriously decorated, and furnished as a spacious lounging room has been newly added on the ground floor for ladies and gentlemen.

The hotel is of fireproof steel construction. It is centrally located near shops and theatres, and only one block from Subway and Elevated stations.

The Prince George, however, is just off the noisy avenues and out of the rush traffic. Its location assures the guest a quiet night's rest.

The Prince George is exceptionally desirable for ladies visiting New York unescorted. The watchful care of its management guarantees them every safeguard and protection.

The table is excellent. The "Model Prince George Farm" provides vegetables and dairy products, and the sea food comes direct from Cape Cod.

Rates: Bedroom and Bath, one person, $2.00 and up. Two persons, $3.00 and up, Parlor, Bedroom and Bath, $5.00 and up.

Special rates to permanent guests.

SEEING NEW YORK

First Day

Morning.—Leaving Hotel, take Subwaw at Bowling Green. A stroll across Battery Park brings you to landing place of boats to the Statue of Liberty, Ellis Island or Governor's Island, which run every hour on the hour week days, and on Sunday every half in afternoon. On return of boat, a visit should be made to the Aquarium. This is only a minute's walk from boat landing.

Afternoon.—Across from Battery Park is the new Custom House. In front of this is a small oval park, Bowling Green, as famous a landmark as there is in the city. A few minutes' walk east brings you to Pearl and Broad Streets, where is located Faunce's Tavern. In this tavern Washington took leave of his aides when about to surrender his commission. Two blocks north of Broad Street are the Stock Exchange and Sub-Treasury. One block west, at Wall Street and Broadway are Trinity Church and Cemetery.

Second Day

Morning.—Take Broadway car or subway to Fulton Street. On Broadway, at Vesey Street, are St. Paul's Church and Cemetery. Washington worshipped here and his pew may be seen. A block north is the Woolworth Building, highest in the world. Opposite is the Post Office, and just beyond are City Hall Park and the City Hall. On the east side of the Park is Newspaper Row. Walking morth past City Hall, at Chambers and Centre Streets, are the Hall of Records and the Municipal Building. Four blocks north on Centre Street, the Tombs and Criminal Court Buildings, connected by the famous "Bridge of Sighs." Paradise Park, Bowery, and the Chinese and Jewish quarters are closely adjacent, and the visitor can readily find them by inquiring the way of a passerby.

Afternoon.—Grace Church, Broadway and 10th Street, conveniently reached by Broadway car from hotel. A beautiful specimen of Gothic architecture. A few minutes' walk in a southeasterly direction is Cooper Union. Lincoln made his first speech in New York in this building. Cross back one block beyond Broadway to Washington Square. Here are the memorial Arch and lower Fifth Avenue.

A bus can be taken here up Fifth Avenue to 42nd Street, noting as you go, Madison Square. The bus may be discarded at 29th Street and a visit paid to "The Little Church Around the Corner." At 42nd Street and Fifth Avenue should be noted the New York Public Library, with its vast quantities of books and the second best gallery of paintings in the city.

Third Day

Morning.—Take Fifth Avenue bus to Metropolitan Museum of Art and from there walk through Central Park to American Museum of Natural History.

Fourth Day

Subway to Bronx Park, Zoological Garden, and Van Cortlandt Park. Cars reach direct.

Any Day or Evening.—Stage up Fifth Avenue through 72nd Street and up Riverside Drive to 135th Street and Broadway, passing en route on Riverside Drive, Soldiers' and Sailors' Monument, Firemen's Monument, Columbia University, Barnard College, Grant's Tomb, Historic Claremont. An interesting ride, overlooking the Hudson River and the Palisades opposite. Subway to Morningside Heights, to Columbia College, and Spanish-American Museum, Broadway and 156th St.

MUSEUMS AND GALLERIES

The David Galleries, Rare Paintings, Hotel Plaza, 58th Street and Fifth Avenue.

Metropolitan Museum of Art, Fifth Avenue and 82nd Street.

Museum of the Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences, Eastern Parkway and Washington Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y. New York Historical Society, 76th Street and Central Park West.

New York Public Library, Fifth Avenue and 42nd Street.

POINTS OF INTEREST

American Museum of Natural History. Central Park West and Seventy-seventh St. The Museum is open free to the public everyday in the year: Week days, including legal holidays, from 9 a.m. to 5 p. m. Snnday afternoons from 1 to 5.

Aquarium. Battery Park, foot of Broadway. Originally erected as a fort called Castle Clinton.

Botanical Gardens at Bronx Park, Subway reaches direct.

Bowery. Word derived from Dutch word "bouweries." A walk along this street will lead through Chinatown and much of the Ghetto district.

Bowling Green. A small oval park at the foot of Broadway. Oldest in the city.

Cathedral of St. John the Divine. (Episcopal.) Cathedral Heights at 110th Street and Amsterdam Avenue.

City Hall. City Hall Park, Broadway from Chambers to Mail Streets. Governor's room in this building contains some very interesting paintings and Washington relics.

Columbia College. Morningside Heights. Called Kings College when established in reign of George II.

Cooper Union. Erected by Peter Cooper as a free library and lecture lyceum. Lincoln made his first speech in New York in this building.

Fraunce's Tavern. Pearl and Broad Sts. In this building Washington took leave of his aides before proceeding to the Capital to surrender his commission.

Grant's Tomb. Riverside Drive and 123rd Street. A truly wonderful memorial to a beloved and famous soldier-statesman.

Historic Claremont. Riverside Drive, America's Famous Road House. One of the old New York landmarks built before 1776. Home of Theodosia Burr Alston, 1803-6. Home of Joseph Bonaparte, brother of Napoleon, 1815-16.

Metropolitan Museum of Art. Central Park and 82nd Street. The most famous museum in America.

Obelisk, Near Metropolitan Museum of Art. Erected in Egypt and presented by the Khedive to this country. The cost of bringing it here was more than $100,000.

Pearl Street. At No. 81 is the site of the first public printer, William Bradford. At Broad and Pearl Streets is Fraunce's Tavern, mentioned above.

Public Library, Fifth Avenue and 42nd Street. Includes the old Astor, Lenox and Tilden libraries. Some of the oldest books in existence are on review here, also rare paintings and historic documents.

Statue of Liberty. Can be seen from Battery Park. Reached by boat from the same place, which runs on frequent schedule.

St. Patrick's Cathedral. Fifth Avenue and 50th Street. The most prominent Roman Catholic Church in the city, and a beautiful specimen of church architecture.

St. Paul's Church. Broadway and Vesey Street. Attended by Washington, whose pew is marked by a tablet. The cemetery surrounding the church contains the graves of some famous people.

Sub-Treasury. Wall and Nassau Streets. On this site was read the declaration of Independence in 1776. A fine statue of Washington stands on the steps.

PROMINENT STREETS-Continued

"Newspaper Row." Park Row, opposite City Hall. The offices of the "World," "Sun" and "Tribune" are still here, and others are nearby. The most interesting time to visit is about six o'clock in the evening, when the countless thousands wend their way homeward.

Riverside Drive. A beautiful avenue, commanding the Hudson River and hills of New Jersey shore.

PARCEL POST

Four ounces or less, one cent for each ounce or fraction of ounce, regardless of distance (domestic). More than four ounces based on pound rates.

Places Where Parcels Must Be Mailed

Parcels weighing over four ounces must be mailed at the General Post Office or at a lettered or local named station or branch post office, or such numbered stations as have been designated to receive parcel post matter.

Uninsured parcels weighing four ounces or less may be mailed at the most convenient point. They may be mailed in street package boxes and at all numbered stations as well as the General Post Office and carrier stations.

Parcels must bear the name and address of the sender, preceded by the word "From."

Parcels Must Not Be Sealed

Parcels must be prepared in such manner that contents can be easily examined. Parcels which are scaled or otherwise closed against inspection, or which contain or bear writing which is not permissible are subject to postage at the first-class (letter) rate and will be treated as first-class matter. If such a parcel exceeds four pounds in weight it is unmailable.
